

New Zealand
Anaesthetic Technicians'
Society

Strategic Plan 2022 -2025

Mahere ā-Rautaki 2022 – 2025

The New Zealand Anaesthetic Technicians' Society' strategic plan (2022-2025) outlines key priorities, expectations and aspirations.

Our vision is to advocate for the profession of Anaesthetic Technicians and provide a leading voice that supports and promotes quality and patient care.

Ko te whāinga kia wawao mā ngā mahi a ngā ringapū Whakarehu me te tuku i te reo ārahi e tautoko ana, e whakatairanga hoki ana i te manaakitanga kounga me te manawaroa.

To promote the profession of Anaesthetic Technicians and provide quality professional development opportunities.

Hei whakatairanga ake i te umanga o ngā ringapū Whakarehu me te tuku i ngā ara kounga mō ngā whakawhanaketanga ngaio

Strategic Objectives and priorities

Nga whainganga me nga kaupapa matua

Advocacy –

Kaiwawao -

- To advocate for the profession, communicating with all relevant professional healthcare bodies
- Establish and maintain regular meetings with MSCNZ to discuss professional requirements are being met and new initiatives are created to support growth
- Maintain the MOU between NZSA and NZATS
- To provide advice and resources to the members
- Provide information via a range of channels through all media forums
- Create an awareness and anticipate and respond to developments in the political and health landscape
- Actively seek views of members on key issues

Education –

Mātauranga -

- To provide quality Continuing Professional Development (CPD) opportunities for Anaesthetic Technicians'
- Provide educational forums regionally
- To encourage, support and promote Anaesthetic Technicians' CPD
- Create new and innovative initiatives to deliver CPD to all members
- Ensure consistent communication occurs around education delivery
- Support the NZATS magazine
- Support environmental sustainability and promote ways for the profession to reduce its carbon footprint
- To acknowledge and integrate cultural commitment to the Te Tiriti o te Waitangi
- Liaise with AUT re the academic programme
- Liaise with accredited training hospitals and clinical placement locations
- Actively seek involvement in document reviews and/or creation related to Anaesthetic Technicians'
- Support conferences for anaesthetic technicians
- Provide and promote educational prizes for educational work by anaesthetic technicians

Sustainability –

Whakaukatanga -

- Members are heard and responded to in a timely manner
- The society provides ways for members to engage on key issues for the profession
- The society will grow its financial reserves in an ethical manner
- To reinvest income which supports a financially stable organisation
- To maintain, grow and engage an active membership
- Maintain a strong internal organisational structure
- Maintain scheduled meetings with key stakeholders

Wellness –

Oranga -

- Support members to establish and maintain networks that assist with information sharing
- Facilitate member interaction for support, collegiality and community building
- Promote wellbeing initiatives and resources